DEMOCRATS STOOD UP AND FOUGHT FOR HARD-WORKING FAMILIES

(Ms. DELAURO asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. DELAURO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to remind my Democratic colleagues of what we can accomplish when we stand up and fight for what we believe in.

Last week our Republican colleagues were calling a tax cut for hard-working police officers and kindergarten teachers welfare. But Democrats stood tall and fought hard for tax relief for all Americans who work for a living, who pay taxes, even though they may not make a lot of money.

Today, this House will vote on a tax bill that includes a $500 tax credit for all of America's working families. This bill also provides a $1,500 HOPE scholarship to make college more affordable for middle-class families, and $24 billion for children's health care, the single largest investment in health care since 1965.

All of these priorities the Democrats in the last several weeks have fought and stood tall on and have won. The Democrats said, in fact, that what they did not want to do was to provide tax breaks for the richest and the wealthiest in this country. It is middle class families who have won the benefit of the Democrats' hard work in these last several weeks.

TODAY MARKS A START IN REVIS- ING TAX SYSTEM AND TAX PHI- LOSOPHY IN UNITED STATES

(Mr. BLUNT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. BLUNT. Mr. Speaker, we are here today taking a step toward revising the tax system and revising the tax philosophy that has too long been headed in the other direction. We are here today to decide that American families can spend their money better than the Government can spend their money.

The only bad news in the bill for working families today is it is going to be 6 months before they begin to see what really happens when they have their money back instead of the Government having that money.

A $500-per-child tax credit means to a family of three, a working family of three, $125 every month that the Government has been spending that they can now start spending next year. It is going to make a difference.

This bill will make a difference as we work to make education more affordable. Vocational education, college education, $5,000 in tax credits over 4 years of college; tax savings accounts, education savings accounts that are going to be tax free, that allow families to save for college. We will not be taxing the interest on student loans any more.

This is a great day for American families, Mr. Speaker.

DEMOCRATS MADE TAX BILL BETTER FOR WORKING FAMILIES

(Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I think all of us have a recollection of gathering at the family home and knowing that in the kitchen a stew is brewing. But that stew does not begin to get good until it gets stirred. Today we vote on a bill that the Democrats stirred and made well.

I want to speak to those individuals that may be in fact not where our voice can be heard. Maybe they have a black and white television set, maybe they do not have access to the C-SPAN, but let me tell them, as they go to their jobs and make $20,000 a year, the Democrats have put together a tax bill that will help them.

Or maybe they make $25,000. The Democrats have stirred the pot to help them, because they get a $500-a-year child tax credit, and we respect the fact that they are out working for a living. The Democrats also gave them $1,500 so they can start that college education in the Houston Community College, which I represent, or any community college around the Nation.

The Democrats recognize that these working families they may not be somewhere advocating and lobbying, but we recognize that they make America work. And to the small businesses, we say we count on them too, because the Democrats give them a $1 million tax exemption that starts next year!

The Democrats stirred the pot on this tax bill, and made it fair.

THREAT TO FREEDOM, TOO MUCH POWER IN HANDS OF GOVERN- MENT

(Mr. BOB SCHAFFER of Colorado asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. BOB SCHAFFER of Colorado. Mr. Speaker, when the Founders were debating the Constitution in Philadelphia in 1787, one of the most important subjects of debate concerned what they considered to be threats to freedom.

Some thought that too much government power was the greatest threat to freedom. Some thought that too much power in the hands of the majority would be a threat to the freedom of minorities.

Men like Thomas Jefferson and James Madison wrote extensively about these threats to freedom, and they were right. Today I would like to call special attention to the threat to freedom that Thomas Jefferson feared the most, too much power in the hands of government. When the government takes nearly one-half of a family's income, government has too much power.

Today we consider whether to take a cue from President Jefferson and reduce the power of government by passing the tax relief package currently before Congress, before us now, and to return the authority to the very families that sent us here to do the job.

TAXPAYER RELIEF ACT

(Mrs. TAUSCHER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mrs. TAUSCHER. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the Taxpayer Relief Act and to celebrate the balanced budget agreement.

The balanced budget agreement that we are voting on to implement this week will eliminate the deficit and strengthen the foundation of our economy. It will also put more money in the hands of the American taxpayers through the child tax credit, the HOPE scholarship plan, and reductions in the capital gains tax rates and greater protection from estate taxes.

Most importantly, this agreement provides tax relief in a fair and equitable manner. Working families in America who deserve the child tax credit will be eligible to receive it. Middle-class families struggling to save enough money to put their children through college will qualify for the HOPE scholarship plan, and increased protection from estate taxes will protect more families from unaffordable tax bills when they inherit a small family business or farm.

At the same time, reckless and unaffordable tax cuts have been dropped in this agreement, protecting the budget from exploding deficits in the future. The balanced budget agreement provides a sensible path toward eliminating the deficit and providing tax relief.

Mr. Speaker, I strongly support the balanced budget agreement, and I encourage my colleagues to support it as well.

GREAT DAY FOR EVERY AMERICAN

(Mr. DREIER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. DREIER. Mr. Speaker, what an incredible difference the Republican Congress makes. Just a few short years ago, we saw the largest tax increase in history proposed by President Clinton. We are going to be repealing large parts of that today, and we saw a plan for nationalized health insurance,
